EVENT SCHEDULE OCTOBER 2005

DAN PRICE

Monday, October 3, 7:30 p.m.

Radical Simplicity: Creating an Authentic Life (Running Press, $12.95) is the narrative about how DAN PRICE came to create a fully satisfying life by stripping his expenses and material possessions down to the essentials. By drawing closer to nature, this story is filled with practical tips for living more simply, speaking directly to that craving we have for an authentic life.

TIFFANIE DEBARTOLO

Tuesday, October 4, 7:30 p.m.

Written in her wonderfully honest, edgy, passionate, and often hilarious voice, TIFFANIE DEBARTOLO tells the story of Eliza, a young music journalist who moves to New York and shares an apartment with an up and coming musician. When big things start happening to Paul and his band, Eliza has to face her terrors and make a choice that could forever change her life, in How to Kill a Rock Star (Source Books, $14.00).

DAVID BARSAMIAN

Wednesday, October 5, 7:30 p.m.

Citizens in privileged societies like the U.S. often complain that they feel helpless and can't do anything to shake the power structure. In documented interviews with Tariq Ali in Speaking of Empire & Resistance (W.W. Norton, $16.95) and Noam Chomsky in Imperial Ambitions (VHPS Virginia, $15.00), DAVID BARSAMIAN explores how the state and corporations alike can be challenged by the collective action of the people.

ROSITA ARVIGO

Monday, October 10, 7:30 p.m.

ROSITA ARVIGO is a naprapathic physician, herbalist, international lecturer, and teacher of Maya medicine. She has written and co-authored six books on these subjects, including Spiritual Bathing (Ten Speed Press, $24.95) and Rainforest Remedies: 100 Healing Plants of Belize (Lotus Press, $15.95). Arvigo will present tales of a Mayan shaman and stories about her experiences as an apprentice to an esteemed Mayan healer.

CAROL R. BYERLY

Tuesday, October 11, 7:30 p.m.

The influenza epidemic of 1918 killed more people than all of WWI, sickening at least one quarter of the world. In Fever of War: The Influenza Epidemic in the U.S. Army During World War I (New York University, $21.00), CAROL BYERLY uncovers a story that has long been silenced, detailing both the impact of the epidemic on the Army and its medical officers and the limits of modern medicine and warfare.

LEE KLINE & GLENN RANDALL

Wednesday, October 12, 7:30 p.m.

Ranging from spectacular images of wildlife to panoramas of urban and pastoral scenes, LEE KLINE's Colorado Wildlife Portfolio (Books West, $24.95) and GLENN RANDALL's Colorado Wild and Beautiful (Farcountry, $29.95) present amazing explorations of Colorado through over 300 photographs and informative captions.

LIZ WALKER

Thursday, October 13, 7:30 p.m.

In a world filled with stories of environmental devastation and social dysfunction, EcoVillage at Ithaca (New Society, $17.95) takes a refreshing look at a modern-day village that is taking an integrative approach to addressing these problems. LIZ WALKER delves into the heart of the experience at this innovative community, providing a warm, reflective look at what it is like to create a sustainable culture.

JOHN CRAWFORD & KAYLA WILLIAMS

Back from Iraq: Two Soldiers Tell Their Stories

Moderated by Sam Fuqua of KGNU Radio

Sunday, October 16, 7:00 p.m.

Recently-returned soldiers JOHN CRAWFORD, author of The Last True Story I'll Ever Tell (Riverhead Books, $23.95), and KAYLA WILLIAMS, author of Love My Rifle More Than You: Young and Female in the U.S. Army (W.W. Norton, $24.95) will discuss their contentious perspectives on life in Iraq and explore their critical viewpoints on how the war is being managed. Although community members have been able to hear the stories of embedded journalists and politicians, this event will enable citizens to hear the candid narratives of two American soldiers and speak with them directly. THIS EVENT WILL TAKE PLACE AT FLATIRONS THEATER, 1089 13th STREET, BOULDER, CO, 80302. Tickets are $7.00, or free with the purchase of one of the aforementioned books.

PAULA BAKER-LAPORTE*Monday, October 17, 7:30 p.m.

There is nothing complicated about designing homes for health, even though it is not a common practice. In EcoNest (Gibbs Smith, $24.95) PAULA BAKER-LAPORTE identifies homes designed and built in appreciation of the harmony and beauty of nature and in a way that uses nature's resources so as to consume less energy, create less waste, nurture our health, and enrich our senses!

RICHARD ARTHURE*Tuesday, October 18, 7:30 p.m.

In Blazing Splendor (North Atlantic, $19.95) we hear an old Tibetan lama – Tulku Urgyen Rinpoche – in his last years review the highlights of his life. With unsurpassed honesty and humility, we are offered an intimate glimpse into the remarkable reality of a Buddhist master, as well as an in-depth portrait of the lost culture of old Tibet. RICHARD ARTHURE will read selections from the book.

ARLENE BLUM*Wednesday, October 19, 7:30 p.m. (slide show)

How did an overprotected girl from Chicago who rarely exercised wind up being the world's most famous female mountain climber? In her inspirational memoir, Breaking Trail (Simon & Schuster, $26.00) ARLENE BLUM chronicles her journey from an insulated urban childhood to thrilling mountain summits around the world, including Nepal's Annapurna I, the world's 10th-highest peak.

MASHA HAMILTON, JUDITH RYAN HENDRICKS, & DANIELA KUPER
*Strong Women Characters: In Fiction, In PersonThursday, October 20, 7:30 p.m.

MASHA HAMILTON, author of The Distance Between Us (Unbridled Books, $14.95), JUDITH RYAN HENDRICKS, author of The Baker's Apprentice (HarperCollins, $24.95), and DANIELA KUPER, author of Hunger and Thirst (VHPS, $23.95)-- will all come together in a panel titled Strong Women Characters: In Fiction, In Person. These women will read from books that took guts to write and discuss why the world needs female characters of substance – now more than ever.

BILL ROMANOWSKI*Saturday, October 22, 1:30 p.m.

BILL ROMANOWSKI, one of the most colorful and controversial characters in NFL history, will be signing his new book, ROMO: My Life on the Edge, Living Dreams and Slaying Dragons (Harper Collins, $24.95). Romanowski's career includes two Super Bowl wins with the Denver Broncos (1997 and 1998), in addition to the Super Bowls he played with the San Francisco 49ers and the Oakland Raiders.

BOBBIE LOUISE HAWKINS*Monday, October 24, 7:30 p.m.

"Most interesting works of word-art arise out of a sense of our being 'at a loss for words' – while knowing that there must be some, out there, among all the deafening racket of the outside... Again and again, BOBBIE LOUISE HAWKINS' poems invite us into such spaces of human clarity" (Anselm Hollo). Hawkins, "the matriarch of prose poetry," will be reading selections from Bijoux.

EDUCATOR'S APPRECIATION NIGHT*Tuesday, October 25, 7:00 p.m.

Boulder Book Store presents an inaugural EDUCATOR'S APPRECIATION NIGHT, dedicated to teachers and educators in the local community. A 25% discount will be offered throughout the entire store to all teachers and educators; local children's authors will be available to discuss their books; and local businesses and publishing houses will raffle prizes throughout the night. There will be information on the hottest titles for the fall and fundraising programs for schools, as well as free giveaways, including posters, reader copies, and other materials for use in the classroom.

"DIVIDE" READINGS, presented by the CU Program for Writing & Rhetoric*Wednesday, October 26, 7:30 p.m.
